

COMMITTEE ALTERS CURRENCY MEASURE

Chairman Owen Characterizes
Amendments as Changing the Theory of the Bill

WILSON SUPPORT OUT-VOTED

Changes Are Affected by Coalition of Republican and Democratic Members of Senate Banking Committee

REVIVE TALK OF CAUCUS ON BILL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Democrat in the senate decided late in the day that unless the senate banking and currency committee votes back into the administration currency bill some of the fundamentals it has eliminated, a party conference or caucus would be called for the beginning of next week to consider the subject.

Telegrams were sent to absent Democrats urging them to return to Washington at once. At its meeting today the senate committee continued to make changes in the house bill. Supporters of the administration are displeased over this action. A number of Democratic senators at the white house during the day told President Wilson that no progress would be made by permitting the house bill to be "buffeted about in a committee wherein a coalition of Republicans and 'Insurgent' Democrats threatened to revolutionize the measure. It is not known what position the president took.

Amendments characterized by Chairman Owen as "altering the theory of the bill," were written into the administration currency measure today by a coalition members of the senate banking committee, he administration supporters in the committee were out-voted on all but one of the points settled today, and later the talk of a caucus of Democrats to discipline the committee was revived. Notices were sent out summoning absent Democrats back to the senate chamber, but no definite call for a caucus was issued.

The committee voted into the bill the following affirmative provisions: That the regional banks to administer the new currency scheme be capitalized by public subscription, the stock not taken by the public to be taken by the member banks of the system.

That each regional bank be controlled by nine directors, five to be named by the government through the federal reserve board, and four to be chosen by the member banks. That the new currency to be issued be treated as notes, obligations to the United States, and not as "gold and lawful money" as provided by the administration bill.

With the exception of the proposal to endorse the administration provision making the currency government notes, each amendment today split the Democratic side of the committee. Senators Reed and Hitchcock voted with the five Republicans to make the regional banks publicly owned and government controlled, as against the administration proposal for bank-owned and bank-controlled regional banks. On the proposal to eliminate the words "lawful money" from the redemption clause of the bill, Senator O'Gorman voted with the five Republicans, and the Republicans, leaving only Senators Owen, Hollis, Pomerene and Shafroth behind the administration provision.

All of the Democrats, and Senator Crawford, from the Republican side voted to sustain the administration for treasury notes. When the committee adjourned tonight, there was pending a proposal advanced by Senator Crawford to allow the regional banks to do a general commercial banking business. The amendments adopted today, with Senator Crawford's amendment, Chairman Owen said, would "alter the entire theory of the bill."

Senator Owen said that so far as he knew, no call had been issued for a Democratic caucus on the currency bill. "If a caucus is called," he said, "I suppose it will be simply to find out what the committee is doing and why affirmative action has not been taken on the bill. It will be an advisory conference."

Regulations Misinterpreted.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Osborn today notified internal revenue collectors throughout the country that regulations recently issued governing income tax collections had been misinterpreted by collectors who refused in some instances to pay coupons for interest on bonds of the United States or its possessions, bonds of any state, or county, or any political subdivision thereof, unless accompanied by certificates of ownership, without deducting the normal tax of one per cent. "The income derived from the interest upon such obligations," the commissioner said in a letter to the

MILITIA IS ENCAMPED AT INDIANAPOLIS

INDIANA'S ENTIRE NATIONAL GUARD
READY FOR STRIKE DUTY

Special Trains Bring Troops Under Hurried Orders—Three Hundred
Women Storm Governor's Office and Demand That He Force Arbitration in Street Car Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 6.—Indiana's entire national guard, consisting of more than 2,000 soldiers, is encamped in different parts of Indianapolis tonight, ready for duty in the strike of the employees of the traction and terminal company. Special trains brought the troops under hurried orders, and they were detained in the suburbs, virtually surrounding the town. Great secrecy was maintained as to the moment of arrival of the militia and few citizens even knew that they had been called out until late today. The troop trains were stopped at the outskirts by national guard officers and given directions. The soldiers were held until they were of such number that it was deemed safe to bring them into the city. This was done to prevent any clash with the strikers who, after learning that troops had been called out, were on the downtown streets in large numbers.

Whether the street cars are to be manned by soldiers, officers in charge would not say tonight. Martial law is expected to be declared by the governor before morning. Late this afternoon, nearly three hundred women, members of the Garment Workers' Union, rushed across the state house lawn into the capitol and to the governor's office, where they demanded that Governor Ralston force arbitration in the street car strike. Many of the women were hysterical, and Mrs. Edna Davis, president of the union, said: "We are willing to take up arms to help win this strike."

In answer to the women, Governor Ralston said he had no authority to force arbitration. He said he was in sympathy with the union men, but could not allow a condition of lawlessness to exist and it was his sworn duty to protect life and property. The street car company made no attempt to move cars today.

MCUIRE DENIES HE FURNISHED HENNESSEY WITH LIST OF FIRMS

Partner in Concern Engaged in Bonding Construction Companies a Witness in Whitman's Probe of Graft Investigator's Charges.

New York, Nov. 6.—George H. McGuire, of Syracuse, denied on the witness stand today that he had furnished John A. Hennessey, former Governor Sulzer's graft investigator, with a list of construction firms, which had been "sand bagged" into giving contributions to Tammany hall, as testified by Hennessey last week.

McGuire is a partner in a company engaged in bonding construction companies and in liability insurance. He appeared as a witness in the John Doe proceedings instituted by District Attorney Whitman to investigate Hennessey's charges. No sooner had McGuire sworn that he had never given Hennessey an instance of any construction company having given campaign contributions, than he was withdrawn from the stand. Hennessey was called and reiterated his statement, adding that he could prove it by others. He produced a list of firms which he said McGuire had named to him as having made contributions. Hennessey also produced a telegram in confirmation of his testimony.

Recalled to the stand, McGuire contradicted all of Hennessey's testimony. His examination was continued until Tuesday.

Meantime, District Attorney Whitman has applied for the empanelling of a special grand jury to consider such evidence as may be given at the inquiry tending to show violation of the law.

In another letter to collectors, Mr. Osborn explained that banks receiving deposits are not required to withhold at the source the one per cent normal tax on the interest paid on open accounts or certificates of deposit. All such interest, whether paid or accrued, and not paid, must be included in the return by persons entitled to receive it.

STATE DEPARTMENT NOT TO FORWARD PROTEST

CLERGYMAN PRESENTS PETITION
ASKING WITHDRAWAL OF TRIAL

Document is Later Sent to the Russian Ambassador to Forward to Czar—Is Signed by Cardinal Farley and Many Bishops.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Protests from Americans against the prosecution of the "ritual murder" case now on trial at Kiev, Russia, will not be forwarded through the state department. Prominent Christian clergymen who called on Secretary Bryan today with a petition addressed to the czar of Russia urging that the charge against the Jew Beiliss be withdrawn, were told that the department could not transmit the document because it was understood that the Russian government did not desire to receive such communications. The petition then was sent to the Russian ambassador. It appealed to the czar to stop the trial of Beiliss "because of the untold evils to the cause of humanity which may follow from its further prosecution."

The appeal was signed by Cardinal Farley, the Catholic bishop of nearly every city in the east and many leading ministers and religious editors of other denominations. Beiliss' Name Barely Mentioned. Kiev, Russia, Nov. 6.—The name of Mendel Beiliss, on trial for the murder of the Christian boy, Andrew Yushinsky, in March, 1911, was barely mentioned in the closing speech of counsel for the prosecution today.

Toward the end of his address today, however, the prosecutor expressed his conviction that Beiliss was guilty and remarked that the accused had been seen dragging Young Yushinsky toward the brick furnace where Beiliss was employed.

TIMERS CATCH SPEEDS OF AUTOS ALONG MICHIGAN BOULEVARD

Average is Found to Be More Than 25 Miles an Hour—To Report
Test to Chicago Safety Commission.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 6.—Timers, with stop-watches caught the speed of automobiles passing along Michigan boulevard here today. The average was found to be more than twenty-five miles an hour. Motorcycles made nearly forty miles an hour.

The timers were placed on a 150 yard stretch on the downtown lake front in the heart of the business district, where thousands of machines pass each hour. Speed of the cars noted varied from 13 seconds for the 150 yards to 7 seconds.

The test will be reported to the public safety commission. A number of the cars and motorcycles either were without numbers or had them obliterated.

A HUYLER WINDOW.

A particularly handsome window display is that at Vickery & Merigan's just now. The entire window is devoted to a showing of the celebrated Huyler candles and bon-bons. Huyler's candles are to the world of confectioners what Tiffany's goods are to the jewelers, the very highest class. The candles are no less attractive than the boxes themselves and John Vickery who arranged the window had some "classy" goods to work with. Gorgeous chrysanthemums form the center piece for the display.

RUBONIC PLAGUE ON TRADE ROUTES

Washington, Nov. 6.—Presence of Bubonic plague and yellow fever on the great trade routes from the south converging upon the Panama canal is giving grave concern to American health officials. Consul Baker reported to the state department today that during the month of October there were 112 cases of plague in Guayaquil, and that yellow fever was on the increase there.

NO DEVELOPMENTS IN MEXICAN SITUATION

Message Is Sent from White
House Regarding Status of Affairs
Following Note to Huerta

CONFIRM PRESS DISPATCHES

It Becomes Evident That President
Considers Elections Invalid as to President,
Vice President and Members of Congress

NO ENVOY IS SENT TO THE BORDER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—"No developments" was the message from the white house late today as to the status of the Mexican situation, following the presentation to Provisional President Huerta of the wish of the United States that he resign. Those who had any doubt about the press dispatches from Mexico City describing the last representations made to Huerta had the situation clarified for them to an extent by administration officials. From the white house, it became known that the views of the United States upon the recent election in Mexico were set forth in a cablegram to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the charge d'affaires of the American embassy at Mexico City. This cablegram contained certain "instructions." Just what the instructions were was not divulged by the officials, who said they were of a confidential nature. It was recalled that when the negotiations began with the Huerta government, there was no formal note, but "instructions" to John Lind. In this way recognition of the Huerta government through technicality was averted.

From the way white house officials discussed the situation, there existed no doubt in official circles tonight that the instructions to Mr. O'Shaughnessy to convey the desires of the United States to General Huerta were substantially as outlined in dispatches from Mexico City last Monday, although the state department denied that any "ultimatum" had been sent by the government in conversation with the situation as indicating that the United States government, in its communication to Mr. O'Shaughnessy, did not necessarily mean that it had said its last word in the parleys. It became evident at the white house that the president considers the elections of October 26 not only invalid as to the vote on the presidency and vice presidency, but also as to the election of members of congress. The news dispatches today indicated that General Huerta would endorse the newly elected congress and abide by their decision as to the legality of the elections. This was looked up here as an intention on the part of General Huerta to have the election nullified while he continued in power indefinitely.

Alternative measures that the United States might take in event of a rejection by Huerta of the American demands were variously discussed today in official circles. Attention centered on General Huerta's proposal to remove the embargo on arms. Members of congress, and especially many of the senate foreign relations committee, think the embargo should be lifted and that the constitutionalists would then be able by force of arms to oust Huerta. This opinion is being strongly urged upon President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

At the white house, it was stated that no envoy had been sent to the border for the government to discuss the situation with General Carranza. Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, according to Secretary Bryan, is not representing Carranza in any negotiations with the United States, but is giving his own interpretation of the situation. Constitutional representatives continued to deny knowledge of alleged parleys between General Carranza and representatives of the American government.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 6.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative accompanied by Captain W. A. Burnside, military attaché of the American embassy in Mexico City departed suddenly tonight in the direction of Mexico City. Mr. Lind declined to say where he was going, adding that he might be absent for several days.

American Miner Killed

Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 6.—R. Weinger, assistant superintendent of the Penoles Mining Company at Mapimi, state of Durango, Mexico, was robbed and then killed at the direction of a constitutionalist leader. After the murder, his fingers were cut off so the rebel commander might obtain valuable rings the American wore. This information was brought here tonight by Ernest Miller, an official of the mining company, who with other refugees, reached the border after an overland journey of 18 days. The refugees were escorted to the boundary by a relief expedition sent to Mapimi two months ago. They were the last of the American residents to quit the mining settlement.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Although no official denial has been issued regarding possible mediation by France between the United States and Mexico, inquiries at the foreign office today brought replies that seemed to indicate the situation has undergone a slight change since yesterday.

CANDIDATES FROM 82 COUNTIES PASS TESTS

IRA. E. SCOTT OF JACKSONVILLE IS AMONG SUCCESSFUL MEN

Names Will Go Back To County
Boards Who Will Select Road
Superintendents—Candidates from 12 Counties Fail.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 6.—Eighty-two counties of the state submitted the names of candidate for county superintendents of highways who passed the recent examination conducted by the Illinois Highway Commission. These names now go back to the county boards in the several counties and from the list of successful candidates the county board will name its superintendent. Under the recently enacted highway law, no highway improvement of any character whatever, calling for an expenditure of more than $200, can be made unless the county making such improvement shall have complied with provision in the new law in reference to the appointment of a highway superintendent. Out of the one hundred and two counties in the state, four counties—Knox, McLean, Henderson and Dewitt—submitted no candidates, probably due to an oversight. Two counties—Alexander and Winnebago—sent lists of candidates to the high commission, but they did not show up for the examination. In the following twelve counties the candidates failed to pass the examination: the papers of which were examined by James T. Boshell, of the office of public roads, Washington, D. C.

Clinton, Jefferson, Mercer, Pope, Washington, Christian, Kankakee, Livingston, Macoupin, Montgomery, Shelby, Stephenson. For Morgan county road superintendent—I. E. Scott, Jacksonville, passed.

LONE HIGHWAYMAN ROBS PULLMAN PASSENGERS

SECURES $500 IN MONEY AND FIVE WATCHES

Boards Burlington Train at Omaha,
Covers and Robs Porter, Forcing
Him to Get Money From Passenger's clothes and Then Escapes.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 7.—A highwayman boarded one of the sleeping cars on a westbound Burlington as it was leaving the transfer depot at Council Bluffs shortly after midnight, held-up the porter, robbed several passengers and made his escape. The robber is believed to have secured about $500 in money and five watches. He knocked at the vestibule door of the sleeper just as the train was leaving the station and the porter admitted him. Immediately he covered the latter with a revolver and took his money and a watch. The porter was then ordered to go through the sleeper ahead of the robber and was forced to make a search of the clothing of six passengers. By the time that had been accomplished the train neared the Union Pacific bridge and the hold-up man backed to the vestibule of the sleeper after having signalled the engineer to stop. He jumped from the train on the Iowa side of the river and it was half an hour later that the police of this city and Council Bluffs were notified of the robbery.

BARNES CLAIMS ELECTION OF W. L. WOERNER, REPUBLICAN

Early Returns Had Indicated
Majority for Bartlett, Candidate for Chief Justice of Court of Appeals.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The election of William L. Woerner, Republican, as chief judge of the court of appeals, was claimed tonight by William Barnes, Jr., Republican state chairman. Early returns had indicated a plurality for William Bartlett, Democrat and Independence league candidate. Barnes conceded that the Republicans had not elected a sufficient number of Republicans to the assembly to control the lower house of the legislature. They elected only 74 members, he said. A majority is 76.

GOV. JOHNSON GUEST OF HONOR OF CHICAGO PROGRESSIVE CLUB

Declares That Theatre of Action in Recent Election From the National Standpoint Was Massachusetts.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California, fresh from his activities in Massachusetts and New Jersey campaigns, was guest of honor at a dinner given by the Chicago Progressive club here tonight. Of results of the Massachusetts election he said:

"The theatre of action, from the national standpoint, was Massachusetts. Here was neither complication nor pretense. Bird, the Progressive candidate for governor, was militant, uncompromisingly progressive. Gardner, the Republican candidate, represented the embittered opposition to progressivism. Side by side, with reactionaries and the apologists of last year, in behalf of Gardner, fought the near-progressive and the entire presidential lightning rod contingent. In dulcet tones, Senators Cummins, Borah, Norris and others pleaded for the old Republican party, portrayed its third party in Massachusetts, its glorious traditions and the division of offices that might be made in the future, tearfully begged Progressives to return to their old allegiance. "Every specious argument was used; every conceivable power and influence was invoked for Gardner and against Bird. The result is startling. Today, for the first time in history, the Republican party is the third party in Massachusetts. The Progressive party is the only one with strength intact and is the second party there."

"Only in Massachusetts was the contest clear-cut. In New Jersey the Republican candidate staked his fortune on his advocacy of Roosevelt and his own assumed progressivism. The issue there was obscure. In Massachusetts the issue was no misunderstanding. The question was, which party shall survive, the Republican or the Progressive? Massachusetts answered in no uncertain tones."

DIAGNOSIS IS WOUNDED IN FIGHT IN HAVANA

Altercation Follows Alleged Remarks by General About Followers of General Carranza

SUSTAINS TWO KNIFE WOUNDS
Fugitive and Pedro Guerrero Were Struggling When Revolver Is Fired, the Bullet Striking Guerrero

POLICE ARREST THE ENTIRE PARTY

HAVANA, Nov. 6.—General Felix Diaz was wounded in an altercation which took place in the Malecon tonight. He was stabbed twice, being wounded behind the ear and in the neck. He also was beaten with canes.

General Diaz, with Cecilio Ocon, a fellow fugitive from Mexico and Luis Malda, were listening to a band concert in the Malecon, when a group of Mexicans, among them Young Pedro Guerrero, passed the Diaz party. Diaz is said to have made some unpleasant remarks about the followers of Carranza, whereupon Guerrero went to the sea-wall where other Mexicans were seated and informed them of Diaz' alleged insult.

The entire group came back to where Diaz and his friends were conversing and hot words were exchanged. Guerrero sprang at Diaz with a knife, wounding him. The two were struggling when a policeman seized Guerrero. Some one fired a revolver, the bullet striking Guerrero.

Diaz was taken to a hospital where it was found that his wounds were superficial. Guerrero is seriously wounded.

The entire party was arrested.

Diaz Escaped October 27.

General Felix Diaz made his escape from Mexican soil on October 27th, taking refuge on board the United States Gunboat Wheeling at Vera Cruz. He was transferred to the Louisiana and from there to the Battleship Michigan, later being put aboard the Steamer Esperanza, which reached Havana on Monday last.

As long ago as October 1st, the Cuban government was warned that a band of Mexican conspirators were planning to kill General Diaz who was then on his way from Europe to Mexico. The Cubans took precautionary measures and Diaz was closely guarded when he landed at Havana on his homeward voyage.

There were rumors of other plots against his life when it was learned that he was to return to Havana. A late Vera Cruz despatch reported that Diaz had left behind him there alleged proof that an agent of the government was on his way to Vera Cruz with orders to take Diaz to Mexico City dead or alive.

General Diaz was the candidate of the national Democratic party for the presidency. He had been sent out of the country by General Huerta as head of the special Mexican mission to Japan, but returned for the purpose of carrying on his campaign. When he arrived at Vera Cruz on October 22nd, he found the situation so threatening that he did not dare to continue to the Mexican capital.

Invited To Visit Mexico City.

General Huerta sent him an invitation to visit Mexico City and even despatched an envoy to endeavor to induce Diaz to accept the invitation. He declined to do so and went to a hotel and finally made his way to the American consulate from which he escaped to a launch which carried him to the Wheeling.

General Felix Diaz is a nephew of General Porfirio Diaz the former president of the republic. A year ago he headed a revolutionary movement at Vera Cruz which was promptly suppressed. He headed the revolt against President Madero in Mexico City last February, which ended in the overthrow of Madero and the assumption of the presidency by General Huerta.

AT SCOTT'S TODAY.

Blanche Walsh in Tolstoy's "Resurrection" in four reels will be the attraction at Scott's theater today.

Words are inadequate, no description, no matter how complete, can do justice to the wonderful story by Leo Tolstoy, which forms the basis of this wonderful four-part film.

The story bristles with action—with scenes that transport one from the aristocratic mansions of Moscow to the humblest hovels among the peasants, from sumptuously furnished cafes to the interior of a Russian prison, from a trial of court to an enforced march across Siberian plains. All these and many others are bound together with masterly skill into one of the world's most heartrending tragedies.

Owing to the length of the play (four reels) and the great number who are sure to want to see it, we would suggest that all who can attend the first show.

OF WOMAN'S COUNTRY CLUB. The anniversary and open meeting of the Woman's Country Club of Orleans will be held Wednesday, Nov. 12, with Mrs. James Holmes of Orleans as hostess.

The meeting Wednesday, Nov. 5, was well attended and very enjoyable. Two papers were read on the general topic, England. At the calling of the roll each member answered with the name of one of the English monarchs. A production by Mrs. Al Curry treated of the English royalty and a paper by Miss Tillie Richardson told of the natural resources of the country.

The hostess of the afternoon was Mrs. Charles Strawn, who although a non-member of the club entertained royally the 24 members and 29 guests present. Mrs. Henry Dawson of Springfield and Miss Bettie Mosley of Jacksonville were among those present from a distance.

At this meeting by a unanimous vote the president, Mrs. F. E. Drury and the secretary, Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen were instructed to express to the women of Jacksonville the gratitude of the club members for keeping Jacksonville a saloonless city.

Water mains, hydrants and a stand pipe are also included in the plans. Winchester now has no fire protection except hand engines and the "bucket brigade."

SALEM LADIES AID SOCIETY HOLDS SIXTH ANNIVERSARY

Delightful Gathering at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green Last Evening. Reading by Miss Boyd Feature of the Program.

The sixth anniversary of the Salem Ladies Aid society was observed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green, seven miles north east of the city Thursday evening. One hundred were present and enjoyed a delicious two course supper served by the ladies.

The president, Mrs. George Hoagland, presided at the program opened by all singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Mrs. Hoagland read a scripture selection and Rev. H. F. Cusic led in prayer. The audience was next favored by a solo "I Wish I Had Been Born a Boy," by Miss Nellie Green, accompanied by Miss Helen Strawn. Mrs. King read, "The Watch Meeting," from "The Land of Long Ago." Harry Thompson recited, "Springtime House Cleaning."

The reports of the secretary and treasurer showed the society in a flourishing condition and the program closed with the following reading by Miss Fannie Boyd:

Our Aid. Dear Friends: It is with pleasure that I read to you tonight this piece entitled "Our Aid." I do not suppose there is anyone here tonight but that knows the meaning of this gathering. And I am sure we are all glad when the first Thursday in November of each year comes. When we as sisters of the Aid have as our guests the husbands, fathers, sons and brothers and enjoy a social evening together and partake of the good things of life.

Now we think these gentlemen guests of ours fully appreciate the work of this society by the way their noble hands so kindly help us with chicken fries, socials, etc. And we as a society tonight wish to thank them for their generous help.

On the first Thursday afternoon of each month the ladies meet together to discuss business pertaining to this society. After we enjoy a literary program. We have not worked any at our meetings this year, nevertheless, we will have a bazaar the 10th of next month. And no doubt from now on the busy sisters will be seen making something as neat and attractive as possible for this bazaar in order that we might have more friends in the society.

Altogether we have had a very successful year and we have done the best we could towards helping the various causes which needed the support of this society.

In closing I will endeavor in a brief alphabetical way to recall the names of the families represented in this, "The Salem Ladies' Aid Society."

A stands for Arnold, whom we miss when not present, B for Baker, Boyd and Boston, whose helping hands have never failed.

C is for Cully, both Minnie and Mable; also for Carwell and Crabtree, who are always ready with a willing heart whenever duty calls. D is for Dunlap and Davis of which families of the latter we have three, Dolly, Edith and Bertha and without the kind help of these families four it would be hard to strive.

G is for Green who with a happy smile is always ready for us with a full report of the meeting we have had before.

H is for Hoagland, our president, so dear, who's presence has never failed us this year. And there's Mrs. Harrison, who for two years was our guide and Clara Hodges, although far away, does everything she can to help us on our way.

We also have a King, Jessie by name, who is always faithful and true. Then comes Mrs. Killain, how noble she has worked and to lose her we will all regret.

How effie Marthole showed her faithful heart when she prepared that dinner on that hot July day for the ladies of this society.

P stands for Ponds, who do what they can and then comes Phillips and without this name, Oh, what would we do, for Mollie keeps the money which carries us through.

There is kind hearted Sister Self who has helped us so nobly in days gone by.

And then there's Spreens, that name sounds good for we know the work their hands can do.

T is for the last on this long list, but it is not the least, I must say, for it stands for Ticknor, our teacher you know, and Mrs. Todd who so gladly helps and also Clara Thompson the most faithful of us all, who hasn't missed but one meeting during the past six years.

How blest the sacred tie that binds, In sweet communion kindred minds, How swift the heavenly course they run, Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes are one.

To each the soul of each how dear, What tender love! What holy fear! How does the generous flame within, Refine from earth and cleanse from sin.

Their streaming eyes together flow For human guilt and human woe; Their ardent prayers together rise, Like mingling flames in sacrifice.

Together oft they seek the place, Where God reveals his shining face, How high, how strong, their raptures swell, There's none but kindred souls can tell.

Football fans innumerable will flock to the Illinois field this afternoon at 2:30 to see the big football game between the Quincy High school and the Jacksonville High school. will be made by several including the visitors. On Friday the Quincy lads will be guests of honor of President Rammelkamp of Illinois college and will witness the big college football game in the afternoon between Illinois college and Millikin university.

The coaches at Quincy, Badgely and Osborn, have not decided on the lineup of the Quincy players. According to dope from Quincy, Wheeler will play center, Lemmon and Schaaf at tackles and Rudy at fullback, at least this is the way the line-up will start out. Quincy intends to bring over fifteen players so that substitutions can be made. Their coaches think that "Quincy will make a much better showing against Jacksonville than did Keokuk last week, with a bare possibility of a win. The squad will leave on the early Wabash train Friday morning and will not be back until late Saturday night."

Coach Buland has announced the following lineup: Berryman, c; Reynolds, lg; Strawn, lt; Hering and Pyatt, le; Dickson or Williamson, rg; L. P. Wood and Pyatt, re; Johnson or Reynolds, qb; Sutherland, rh; Haigh, lh; Killebrew, fb. John Larson will referee and the Quincy men are expected to bring along an umpire.

Recitations will be adjusted at the high school so that a half holiday will be given the pupils.

History is Repeating Itself

We have since establishing our store carried THE VERY FINEST NUTS that have come to this market. There is a vast difference in nuts and it is our policy to offer our customers THE VERY HIGHEST QUALITY. They have especially fine flavor and sweetness and the shells are thin and crisp. This season we are duplicating the accomplishments of former years and if you will take a look in our east window you will see the very finest nuts that have been grown for this year's trade.

ALMONDS, PECANS, BLACK WALNUTS, BRAZILIANS, HICKORY NUTS, they are all there and if you see them then you'll know that the nuts shipped us have certainly been selected from vast stocks. They have not come to us mixed with stones and bark or in damp sacks. These nuts show not only that they are the best of their kind but that they have been carefully and scientifically handled, in the way to put them into the best possible market condition.

Special Bargain in Peas

We are offering AN EXTRA BARGAIN in Trio brand peas. They were canned by a small packer who did not separate the large and small ones. However he was careful about the quality and you will find each can choked full of sweet, tender, fine flavored peas, not a hard one among them. We bought these excellent peas in such a way that we can offer them at a VERY SPECIAL PRICE BY THE CASE. The figure is LOWER THAN USUALLY OFFERED BY BIG JOBBERS to the trade. We have only a limited supply. If you are interested COME IN AND ASK THE PRICE and you will certainly buy.

ILLINOIS EXPECTS HARD GAME AGAINST MILLIKIN

Both Teams Have Been in Stiff Practice for Big Contest Saturday—Keithley of Peoria Will Referee and Sibling of St. Louis Will Umpire—Men's Meeting Tonight.

Followers of football maneuvers throughout the colleges of Illinois are interested in the outcome of the Illinois-Millikin game which will be played here tomorrow. Since Illinois won from Wesleyan last Saturday, while Millikin was being cleaned up over at Aledo by Williams and Nashti, the dopists have figured that Illinois college has to be taken into consideration in figuring the championship team for the state. Interest in Saturday's contest is keen, and Coach Ashmore of Millikin says his men lacked "pep" in the game against Williams and Vashiti and that is the stuff which he has been injecting into his men all this week, so they are coming over here with hopes of "cleaning up" and thereby retrieve the loss they sustained recently in the enemy's country. While the college towns are interested in the game, Springfield is also vitally concerned in the outcome of the game. Illinois college has two of last year's Springfield men, Frisbee, who is playing end and Wilson in the back field. Over at Millikin Acker is playing quarter and Catlin end, both former Springfield high school players. Great rivalry exists between these men and the two squads and the battle will be a hard fought one from start to finish. Coach Harmon had his men out yesterday scrimmaging with the second team and they appeared in good trim. They feel that they have a big proposition on their hands with the James Millikin bunch but they are determined to give them the very best they have.

Officials for Game.

From the stand point of officials the game promises to be high class. Keithly of Peoria has been secured to referee and Alfred T. Sibling of St. Louis will umpire. Sibling is given in Spalding's catalogue among the list of recognized officials. He is a former player on the Washington university team. While unknown to Coach Harmon or players here he has some splendid recommendations and should give good service.

Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting in the interest of the game will be held this evening in the college gymnasium at 7 o'clock. Among the speakers will be Prof. Whisler, T. P. Carter, Robert Buckthorpe, Ralph Dunlap, Coach Harmon, Capt. Alford.

Waverly Visitors.

Among the Waverly visitors in the city Thursday were Arthur Rowland, Albert Grey, August Batty, R. L. McDivitt, Frank Mulk, Charles McGuire, Edgar Short, Edgar Stewart, Fred Points, R. S. Woods.

Administration By Trust Companies

Until quite recently estates were administered by individuals only.

A need was recognized for a method of administration of greater permanency and responsibility than that to be had of the average individual and the modern trust company has been evolved. A creature of law, it has required time to perfect it and to disseminate a knowledge of its many functions and its usefulness.

People are learning that the management of estates is a business in itself and more and more estates are being placed in control of trust companies. In those communities where these companies have been operating for some time they are handling a large number of estates in a satisfactory manner.

Trust companies under the supervision of the state, safeguarded by ample capital and of assured permanency have exceptional capacity for administering, managing, holding and distributing estates.

Generally the entire affairs of the estate are turned over to the trust company, but sometimes a member of the family or a friend is made co-executor. Then the trust company handles the detail work of the estate subject to the approval of the co-executor.

Perhaps in making your will you may desire such an arrangement as this. By it you secure the system, responsibility and experience of the trust company assisted by the co-executor.

We suggest this plan as one that may appeal to you. You are invited to consult us confidentially and without cost.

ANNUAL MEETING BEING HELD AT GRACE CHURCH.

Representatives From Six Counties
Gather on Occasion of 29th Annual Session of W. F. M. S. of Illinois Conference—Program For Today.

The first day's sessions of the 29th annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Jacksonville district, Illinois conference, was held yesterday in Grace M. E. church. The society includes organizations from Morgan, Scott, Cass, Greene, part of Macon and part of Schuyler counties. There are in attendance over 60 delegates and the meeting started off with much enthusiasm.

Mrs. William G. Lloyd of Greenfield is president of the organization and presided during the day. The afternoon's program opened with devotional service led by Mrs. J. W. Miller and followed by the communion service in charge of Rev. J. W. Miller. Words of welcome were given by Mrs. John N. Ward and the response was made by Mrs. A. N. Simmons of Virginia. The report of the recording secretary was given by Mrs. Samuel Darley of Jacksonville and of the treasurer, Mrs. James I. Graham. The society now has a balance in the treasury of $48.10. Among the addresses of the afternoon were "Money Talks" by Miss Margaret Robinson of Springfield, conference treasurer, and "The Art of Motherhood," by Mrs. E. K. Metcalf of Greenfield.

The report of the children's work and the young people's work was in charge of Mrs. Mary Naylor of this city. She also had charge of the baby parade. The babies were wheeled to the front of the church in the buggies, which were neatly decorated. The little light bearers were from Centenary M. E. church and the Kings Heralds of the Grace church. One new life member was added to the children's list, Marjorie Lucille Fresh of White Hall. A collection was taken amounting to $20 which will be sufficient to pay for the admittance of two children as life members.

The evening program opened with an organ voluntary by Donald Swarthout and after the devotional lead by Rev. J. W. Miller, Miss Stella Shuff sang a solo. Mrs. Terry of Chicago, missionary worker among college girls, gave a talk and this was followed by an address by Miss Shante, who is home on a furlough from Japan. She told of her work there in a most profitable and fascinating manner. The benediction was given by Rev. W. W. Theobald.

Water Left to Use in Case of Fire.
Bond Issue to Be Voted On Soon.
Schools Closed.

White Hall, the thriving little city of Greene county is facing a water crisis, Thursday the water was shut off from the reservoir, as there is only fifteen inches of water over the intake in the big hole and this must be saved in case of a bad fire.

From May 1 to November 1 the city has used over fifty million gallons of water and the daily pumping has been about 260,000 gallons. On Tuesday only 187,000 was allowed to be used and the flow has been gradually falling short.

On account of the water famine over three hundred men have been put out of work because of the various factories having to close down. Among the concerns, is the Sewer Pipe company, Milk Condensing plant, two Stoneware establishments, Flouring mill, Drain Tile factory and other smaller industries. The closing of the schools was also necessary.

For sometime the city council has been trying to solve the problem and a short time ago it was voted to hold an election when a vote will be taken on the issuance of $6,000 worth of bonds. The election will be held in two weeks.

Several propositions have been talked over as to the best method of relieving the situation. Parents are very anxious for the schools to continue and the factories have work that is contracted for that must be gotten out. There is a plan on foot to haul water via the Chicago and Alton from Carrolltown and perhaps from other places.

The present reservoir for sometime has been thought inadequate to furnish the city sufficient water. If the bond issue passes, which it will without doubt, the money will be used to enlarge the reservoir, so that its capacity will be just doubled.

DEDICATE NEW FIELD.

Athletic Grounds at School for Deaf To Be Known as "Illini."

The new athletic field at the State School for the Deaf was given the name of "Illini" at special exercises held on the ground Thursday afternoon. It was through the Athletic Association that the day was observed.

Supt. Gillett, giving his consent most rapidly to such an occasion. The exercises were held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock and all the pupils assembled on the grounds. Supt. Gillett told briefly of how athletics had begun and thrived at the school. Much work was necessary to make the grounds and there has been erected two stands of large seating capacity and in every way the field is fully equipped. The school is to be congratulated upon having such a field and its benefits can not be measured in dollars and cents.

It is expected that the field will be flooded in the winter time and turned into a skating rink. The football game which followed the exercises was hotly contested and was won by Peard with a run of fifty yards for the holy touchdown of the game. Otto Speith the photographer was present and took a circuit view of the field with everybody lined up.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

A surprise party was given last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Culp of Woodson, who were recently married. About seventy-five neighbors and friends gathered at their home taking along all kinds of good things to eat. The surprise was complete in every way and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Culp had only returned home a few moments when the guests began to arrive. The evening was a most enjoyable one, and some delightful music was furnished by Miss Myrtle Welbourne, of Colorado, who is visiting in the neighborhood. During the evening the guests of honor were presented a beautiful linen table cloth, the presentation speech being made by Dr. G. W. Miller and the response was happily given. The repast was greatly relished and the evening passed all too rapidly.

Class No. 14 of the Methodist church of Murrayville are planning to give a "crazy tea" at the church Saturday night.

In honor of her birthday Thursday Miss Althea Hall of Alexander was treated to a most enjoyable surprise. Bearing ample refreshments and filled with ideas for entertainment, twenty-five young people of the vicinity walked in on Miss Hall at 7:30 without a note of warning. Games and music passed the time until a late hour when the guests left for their homes with memories of an occasion in every sense a red letter day.

Mrs. E. B. Harmon gave a reception in honor of Mrs. H. C. Wolman of this city and Mrs. H. C. Harwood of Bloomington, Thursday afternoon at her home at 707 West State street. There were about 175 guests present. Miss Nell Taylor of New Berlin and Mrs. E. Brown of Canton were among those present from a distance. Mrs. Harmon was assisted by Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse, Mrs. H. K. Chenoweth, Mrs. Frank P. Vickery, Mrs. George S. Rogerson, Mrs. Percy Jenkinson and Misses Marie Chambers, Nell Doying, Bess Smith, Ethel Wylder and Emma Thornborrow. The music for the afternoon was furnished by a five-piece orchestra. Handsome ferns, white and yellow roses and chrysanthemums formed the decorations.

Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. Wolman and Mrs. Harwood received and the guests were one in the opinion that the party was one of the prettiest of the season.

Hooray! Baby To Rule the House

No Longer Do Women Fear The Great-est of All Human Blessings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and too much stress can not be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommend it. You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 130 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most instructive book on this greatest of all subjects, motherhood.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

SIUX INDIANS ADOPT WHITE BABY IN TRIBE

"Good Leader" is the Appellation of the Pale Face Youngster—History of the Child.

"Good Leader" is the name which has been given a nephew of Attorney James Riley of Minnoka, which has been adopted into the Sioux Indian tribe recently. The Minnoka Dispatch in speaking of the child says: "Mrs. L. Wattles of Bisbee, Arizona, was in Lacon recently. Mrs. Wattles used to be Miss Katie Riley. She is a sister of Attorney James Riley of Minnoka and Attorney E. J. Riley of Eureka, and was born and raised in Lacon and at one time was a teacher in our public schools. Twelve years ago she was appointed at teacher of an Indian school in Arizona, but resigned when she married Mr. Wattles. Her sister, Nellie, the youngest member of the Riley family, was also a teacher of an Indian school and finally married J. H. Seiven, the agent of the Rosebud reservation in South Dakota, and now comes the news that a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Seiven on the 17th of September and thereafter is connected a very interesting story.

"It seems that the Sioux tribe of Indians, of which Mr. Seiven is agent, are so pleased with his administration that they think there is nobody quite so good and great as he is and when a son was born to him they decided to honor the occasion in a befitting manner. Therefore they called together a council of the entire tribe which lasted three days and at which the new heir was adopted into the tribe and named Good Leader, out of respect for his father. This makes the child eligible to any office in the tribe and he may some day become head chief. The ceremony of naming the youngster was a very elaborate affair and ended with the smoking of the pipe of peace. One of the pipes used was noted at a treaty of peace in 1825 and again in 1868, having been owned by one chief and then another for generations. The last chief that owned the pipe was a brother of Chief Hollow Horn.

"When Roosevelt was president he visited the Rosebud reservation and was so impressed with Hollow Horn's striking features that he prevailed on the big chief to allow him to have his photograph taken. A year or two later Hollow Horn's picture appeared on the $5 silver certificate issued since that time and there are hundreds and thousands of them now in circulation. This highly prized pipe at the close of the council meeting above referred to was presented to Mr. Seiven in trust of his son to be delivered to him when he becomes of age. In passing it might be well to state that Mr. and Mrs. Seiven have named their son James Riley, in honor of his uncle, James Riley of Minnoka, but by the Indians he will always be known as Good Leader.

"Chief Hollow Horn is now dead. He attended the inauguration of President Wilson last March and while in Washington was taken down with pneumonia and died within a few days. Mrs. Wattles is on her way to her Arizona home, having spent the summer with her sister on the Rosebud reservation."

TENNIS CHAMPION A BRIDE. Shrewsbury, Conn., Nov. 6.—In the presence of a notable gathering of guests that filled Christ church this morning Miss Serita Van Vleet, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Robert Campbell Van Vleet, became the bride of Lieut. After a honeymoon in New York the bridal couple will go west to Fort McDowell, where Lieut. Wood is stationed.

SIMPLIFYING ELECTION METHODS.

Plan Was First Adopted in Grand Junction, Colorado.

In seven American cities, scattered from Portland, Ore., to Cleveland, Ohio, ranging in population from 8,000 to 600,000, you can vote for a dozen candidates, to one office in one election and still not be in any danger of being led away to pail on the charge of repeating.

This is one of the distinguishing features of the preferential system of voting, which was inaugurated less than five years ago in the United States in the little city of Grand Junction, Colorado, and whose adoption by the city of Cleveland, Ohio, on July 1, formally presented the plan to the people of the east.

When seven widely scattered American cities determine upon a new and radically revolutionary change in their system of election the event is worthy of some attention from students of politics. The rapid growth of this method of election has been one of the minor yet most significant events in recent municipal political history. It seems to demonstrate that in the cities, at least, the American voter has come to the conclusion that the plurality system of election, with its unvarying tendency toward minority control, is essentially wrong, and that the plan of the municipal direct primary is a needless and improper burden on both the people and the candidates.

Indeed, the trend away from the direct primary and towards the more simple, inexpensive and compact method of nomination and election is most marked, and while this tendency has, as yet, materialized only in American cities, it is not a wild prophecy to state that it will not, be a decade before the direct primary will fade away before the preferential system as the old conventional gave way before the primary. This tendency will be given an added impetus as the movement toward the simplification of our state government secured a stronger grip and the commission idea begins to be applied in larger units. After all, all of this movement now going on is simply the result of the application of the law of evolution to our political conditions, and we are now moving from the complex to the simple, as in the shift century prior we worked from the simple toward the complex.—From "The Direct Primary and the Preferential Method," by Karl A. Bickel, in the American Review of Reviews for November.

DAMAGED STORE WINDOWS. Some one with a diamond did a very contemptible trick to some east side plate glass windows making long scratches on the windows of the McGinnis shoe store, Alcott's drug store and the room next to it on the corner. Such marks make the glass easily broken, entailing a heavy expense in addition to the unsightliness of the scratches.

GIVES FACTS ABOUT SOIL FERTILITY WORK

H. P. Joy Writes on Important Subject in Answering Query of Peoria County Farm Adviser.

H. P. Joy of Chapin recently wrote the following letter in answer to an inquiry from the Peoria County Farm Bureau. The letter was printed in the Peoria Herald Transcript: "Chapin, Ill., Oct. 27, 1913.

"Mr. H. Truitt, County Agent, Peoria, Ill.

"Dear Sir—Am pleased to reply to your letter of recent date in regard to what I am trying to do in the way of keeping up the fertility of my farm.

"I have now been practically all over the farm with rock phosphate, and one field, which is now in clover sod and will be put in corn next year, has had the second application, making one ton per acre.

"The most striking results I have had have been this year on my wheat and oats. I had a 2 1/2 acre field of wheat, about half of which had received the rock phosphate four years ago through the center, a strip on either side not having had any. I can give you no definite results on this, for the field was all harvested together and turned out 32 bushels per acre, which is nothing big, but in harvesting it could easily be seen that the center of the field, where the rock phosphate had been applied, the wheat was very much the heaviest, and I am sure that a strip along one side, of about five acres, would have yielded more than 15 to 20 bushels, so some of the treated part I am sure must have made 40 to 45, and possibly 50 bushels to the acre. My oats, which had received 1,000 pounds of rock phosphate per acre, two or three years ago, made 42 bushels and were a very good sample, while my neighbor planted the same seed and his yielded about 16 bushels and not a good quality. This difference, however, was not all due, I am sure, to the rock phosphate, as mine were treated for smut, while his were not, but I can't help but feel that the rock phosphate helped some, for this was a very poor oat year with us, hardly any one having a yield of more than 20 to 25 bushels. One neighbor next to me, however, had a piece that yielded about 44 bushels, so I suppose you could say that he would disprove all by theories, but his were on a good piece of ground and were quite late oats, while mine were extra early ones and we had a few rains that helped the late oats, but came too late to benefit the early ones.

"I assure you I am not using rock phosphate because of any pet theories I have or anything of that sort, nor because I wish to experiment with it, but solely for the purpose of getting a few more of those 'almighty dollars' and perhaps I can give you the best idea of the way I feel about it from my past six years of experience by saying that next year I expect to buy another carload and apply it at the rate of one ton per acre instead of 1,000 pounds.

"In regard to limestone, have used very little of it so far, only one carload. Most of that was put on five acres for alfalfa last year. I felt sure in saying that it pays big for alfalfa, as I cut five tons of hay per acre this year from last year's sowing.

"Wishing you success in your work I remain, Sincerely, "H. P. Joy."

CHINESE TO HANG FOR MURDER

Portland Ore. Nov. 6.—After a legal fight extending over a period of five years, Lem Woon, alias Lum Soy, a Chinese who was convicted of murdering Lee Tai Hoy on March 7, 1908, during a tong war, will be hanged a week from today, unless Gov. West should see fit for some reason to grant a reprieve. Lem Woon was originally tried in the summer of 1908 and Circuit Judge Bronaugh sentenced him to hang on November 20, of that year. The condemned man's lawyers appealed first to the state supreme court and from that to the United States supreme court, basing their appeal upon the fact that the defendant was tried on an information after the legislature had provided for indictments, but before the law became effective. The conviction was upheld in both higher courts and it is believed that the legal resources of the defense are exhausted. At the county jail everything is put in readiness for the execution and it is not believed that the governor will interfere with the execution of the sentence.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

As predicted in this column ten days ago, Tom Lynch is out with a veto of Garry Herrmann's case debaring Dave Fultz from a hearing by the national commission. The plausible Tom also admits that the demands of the players are not unreasonable. He says if Fultz, as chairman of a committee from the players' fraternity, presents himself at a meeting of baseball's governing body he will be listened to, and all of the differences between players and magnates will be ironed out and settled to the satisfaction of every one concerned without friction of any sort.

By their votes the Wolverines oppose a return to the "Big Nine." And the result of the three days' balloting was overwhelming against a resumption of athletic relations with the western intercollegiate conference—2,448 against 960 for. The vote included the students, faculty and Ann Arbor alumni. The dispute is now up to the regents, and much outside pressure is being used to compel them to go behind the returns and put Michigan back in the fold. The end is not in sight and before a conclusion is reached a long and bitter fight is predicted.

The Welkin, a 10 year old racing mare, at Pimlico race track, near Baltimore, on Wednesday, established a new world's record for a steeplechase of two miles when she negotiated the distance, the jumps and the liverpools with 160 pounds up in 3:52 1-5. The mare was nicely handled by Jockey Allen, who, the moment the barrier was sprung, took her out in front, rode her along easily, and "set her down" cleanly at every jump and liverpool, breezing her home with her mouth open under an easy hand ride. When racing "on the flat," the Welkin at her best never was above an ordinary selling plater. Always, however showing a fancy for a distance, and this feat at Pimlico justifies the faith her owner, Col. Parr, had in her when he decided to school her over the jumps.

Racing at Pimlico is worthy of the title. Almost daily seven events are carded, and six out of the seven as a rule are over a distance. The races are conducted under the parliamentary system of speculation, and big crowds are in daily attendance. At Latonia, across the Ohio river from Cincinnati, racing is quite the reverse. The Kentuckians furnish six races daily, and these for most part are sprints.

There is an undercurrent among the baseball moguls that the prices charged at the world championship series are too high, and that the people who pay the freight are not going to permit of the hold-up much longer. A movement is on foot to cut the rates to the level of the prices demanded during the regular season.

The bicycle "race" at Boston is not unlike the "White Sox-Giants" barnstorming tour. Today the team leads, tomorrow the other will tie up the count. And yet some people ask, "Do you believe it is on the level?"

Tom McCarrey of Los Angeles has been hit by the "reform wave." He promises that if his Vernon arena is not voted out of existence he will stage only bouts between feathers, lights and welters and will taboo heavies. Instead of holding his boxing shows at night he will stage them in the afternoon. Foxy Tom has listened to the warnings when it is too late. A vote is soon to be taken looking to the abolishing of the present California boxing law, and all signs point to a victory for those opposed to present arrangements.

Jockey Peak, a clever lightweight, riding at Latonia, was thrown from his mount, Floral Park, Wednesday when the filly ran away. In falling he was kicked in the head by the frightened animal and his skull was fractured. At the hospital small chances are entertained for his recovery. Floral Park is a two-year old, and is said to be a "bad actor" at the post because of improper schooling at the barrier.

In the wrestling days of Muldoon, Whistler, The Jap and other adepts in the game of grappling, Wisconsin sprung Evan Lewis, who became known as the "strangler." The Welsh-American, when he grappled his strange hold about an opponent's neck, it meant death to resist, and the catch-as-catch-can rules had to be revised in order to eliminate Evan Lewis and his methods. This year Kentucky has furnished another Lewis and already he is known as the "Strangler." What his strangle hold is has not yet been exposed, but, like the Wisconsin strangler, his tenure will be short lived if his grip carries the deadly sting used by Evan.

MISSOURI HAS LAST SCRIMMAGE
Columbia, Mo., Nov. 6.—The University of Missouri football team today was given its last scrimmage before the game with the Drake eleven here on Saturday. Kicking, forward passes and breaking up shift combinations were emphasized in the practice drill.

Although the "varsity" played an aggressive game against the "scrubs," there was much fumbling by the regulars. Five second team men were added to the "varsity" squad.

AMERICAN LEAGUE DECLARES AGAINST INTER-LEAGUE SERIES

Demands of Players' Federation Are Discussed Formally and Some of Them Are Declared Acceptable at Chicago Meeting.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The American league, in its annual meeting here today, voted unanimously against the proposal to substitute a general inter-league series for the world's series for the world's series as now played; discussed informally the demands of the Players' federation, and pronounced several of them "acceptable," and appointed a committee to represent it in a convention to consider revision of the rules.

The meeting disposed of a number of routine matters.

No trades were announced, and most of the magnates present said they had not talked trade during the session or after it.

The league will suggest the shortening of the playing season by starting it on April 14, and ending it on October 7. The dates, however, depend upon the National league's agreeing to them. The date for the schedule meeting was not announced.

It was said the talk on the players' demands was "strictly informal," the league received no official list of demands from President Fultz of the Federation, but a series of reforms the players had drawn up had been sent to every club owner by the national commission, and these were taken up. The proposed abandonment of the "reserve rule," which defenders of organized ball say is vital to its existence, naturally found no champions at the meeting, but indications were that the players will be granted some of their demands.

"BILLY" JORDAN TO RETIRE AS PRIZE RING ANNOUNCER

Veteran of Ring Will go to Old Soldiers' Home After the First of the Coming Year.

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 6.—"Billy" Jordan is to retire as official announcer of the prize ring. He is 82 years old, and after the first of the coming year, will go to the Old Soldiers' Home.

Fight followers all over the country know "Billy" Jordan. He has announced championship events that have been held west of the Rocky mountains in the last two generations.

Once a good lightweight himself, Jordan is one of the few men now living who saw the famous battle at Fredericksburg, Va., in 1848, when Tom Hyer defeated Yankee Sullivan in one hour and forty-eight minutes, under the old London prize ring rules. Born in Boston, he came to California in 1852, went east to fight for the union in the sixties, returned and has lived here ever since.

Announcement of the plan was made today at the conclusion of a conference of university and reform authorities. It was stated that any high school refusing to accept the reform school men as competitors would be asked to withdraw from the conference.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD

PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel and Pills Act on Liver and Bowels Like Pepper Acts in Nostrils—Danger!

Get a 10 cent box now. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets.

One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

GIRLS! STOP WASHING
THE HAIR WITH SOAP

Soap Dries Your Scalp, Causing Dandruff, Then Hair Falls Out—Try This Next Time.

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparingly as possible and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it.—Adv.

TRAVELS IN RUSSIA.

A Funeral Procession.

As we were passing along the streets, this morning we saw a funeral procession and it was quite different from anything in our land. First there came two men, each carrying a glass lamp or lantern, lighted; then came the hearse drawn by four fine black horses, each pair led by a man and no one on the hearse, which was an open vehicle with a rich cloth thrown over the casket to hide it from view. Next the hearse walked two nuns, which indicated that the deceased was a young lady. I was informed. Others followed on foot and finally a closed carriage completed the procession. It moved at a slow pace and all connected with it was duly solemn and dignified.

Peterhof Palace.

Well, we have seen another palace, but I shall not take a great deal of time describing it, though it does seem as each one we see has something in it to excel anything we have seen yet. I don't wonder the common people of this land are restive when they see such vast sums lavished on the enjoyment of the royal family while the rank and file have to live the necessities of life. The Palace is called Peterhof and is the residence during part of the spring and summer months of the royal family. How gladly would they exchange places with some of the sturdy, healthy people of the realm I am unable to say, but have no doubt that health and freedom from fear of assassination would be a great boon to the years of the crown and their family.

The palace and adjacent grounds are something over twenty miles from the city and must be reached by railroad train, which we took after dinner and arrived at the station and had a long drowsy ride after that. The palace was built by Elizabeth, daughter of Peter the Great, and like all of its kind is a marvel of richness and beauty. At one side are the apartments of Elizabeth and on the other those of Catharine II. One room was especially noteworthy in that the walls were adorned with the choicest of silk drapery instead of anything like paint or wall paper. One room was essentially Chinese in its furnishings and decorations and was grand. The gold room was as its name indicates and was a marvel of lavish wealth used for decoration. All through the palace was rare china, while rich paintings and other articles of value were plentiful. There were especially fine tapestry and family portraits occupied the entire walls in one apartment. One thing about the place was pleasant, and that was the fact that gorgeous furniture was not concealed with covers to keep off the dust, but all was exposed as the royal family may be there some time soon. We sat in several fine chairs, which we felt quite an honor.

But it was not of the palace that I meant to write, but of the grounds, which are miles in extent and certainly excel anything of the kind in the wide world in point of extent and wealth, beauty and art. They extend along the shores of the Baltic sea and are marvels indeed in every way. And first let me make a poor and ineffectual attempt to describe the scene presented in front of the palace. Stationed at the edge of the wide pavement we look down several feet at a grass plat in front. It is covered with lower beds artistically arranged. Then begin the wonders. Ranged along in front of the grass plot are several figures overlaid with gold and from which water is pouring in great streams and down a slope there are other figures covered with cold and sending forth streams of clear water, while a large basin below has in the center a pile of rocks on top of which is a golden figure, larger than life, covered with gold and representing Sampson slaying the lion. It is also fountain sending forth a volume of water far into the air. Extending from and connected with the basin is a canal or water way extending perhaps an eighth of a mile to the sea and along the side every little way is a fountain sending into the air a stream of clear water large and beautiful.

On each side of the basin is a large space artistically laid off in plots and flower beds and in the midst of each more fountains, while right in front of the basin, or rather on each side, is a small gold covered structure and extending from it a long porch, in front of which are stone pillars. Strolling through the grounds one comes across fountains and things of beauty on every hand, while standing in the place I first mentioned and looking diagonally into the forest through a vista of trees one sees a fountain in each direction in the distance looking like a veritable fairy picture.

At a short distance from the group of fountains first described is a series of waterfalls down the declivity like the cascades at the world's fair at St. Louis and at another place we saw a second series of falls down steps of rock. Then there was a temple like structure, much like the temple of Vesta and from the pillars fall streams of water in a very unique manner. Other fountains scattered through the park add to the beauty and wonder and when we reflect that it is force work by engines and pumps that do all these wonderful things it will be seen what it means. The place at present occupied by the royal family is some four miles farther down the park off forest and we don't try to see it, for it is not permitted, as the family are all there at present and not one is allowed to approach the place.

Near the sea and in the trees is a small palace erected by Peter the Great and used by him a great deal. Near it is a lovely flower garden and Mrs. Ewart and Henrietta took especial delight in the lovely hydrangeas and other marvelous flowers. This palace is a small unpretentious affair, but it was well used by its illustrious owner. There is his bedroom, bed and night gown, a slipper and those of his wife. There is his study or work room and in it a table which he made himself. On another side is the kitchen, where was prepared the food eaten by the great man and there are two bottles each having been filled with whisky and taken along when he went hunting. It was virgin forest all about when he lived there and a mark in the wall is shown and said to have been made by a bullet from the gun of the royal sportsman when he shot at an animal and missed.

Another interesting article is a large crystal vase like thing and said to have been filled with liquor and given a person whom Peter suspected of treachery or falsehood. The recipient had to drink the contents and then appear all right or suffer dire consequences. Our guide was the authority for that statement and gave it for what it is worth, as I do also his statement that Peter the Great was seven feet, six inches tall.

Near, this palace, if it may be so called, is a low rambling structure used by Peter the Great as a bath house and containing all sorts of appliances for bathing. Among other articles is a huge copper tub which was certainly large enough for the purpose, while shower baths and other modes of cleansing the body were at hand. The hermitage is another fine building on the shore of the lake and intended to be used as a dining room whenever the royal family so dictates. The kitchen is below and all service is by dumb waiter and the table is served in the same way and orders are sent down by machinery to the kitchen to be filled. About this are fountains and they are to be seen on all sides.

Golden lake is a small artificial body of water, clear and inhabited by numerous fish. Men were at work removing the moss or algae that will accumulate in such places and they had a lot of it to take away. A unique feature of this lake is an old man who is said to have been there 25 years in a small house at one end and when he rings a bell the fish come for their dinner. It did look as if there was something in it, for when we reached the place he was cutting up some black bread and a swarm of fish was frisking about at the edge of the water and when he rang his bell they did actually make a lot of motions and many jumped clear of the surface. He then took his scraps of bread and threw them into the water and there was a great scrambling for them by the finny tribe. Those we saw were mostly five to eight inches long, though it is said that many a foot and more long inhabit the lake.

A Memorial Church.

One morning we visited the cathedral of the Resurrection, a church erected in honor of Alexander II., who was assassinated. He was the grandfather of the present czar and the man who signed the decree freeing the serfs. He was killed by a bomb in the hands of an anarchist. He was riding in his carriage when a bomb was thrown right behind it, killing several Cossack guards and damaging the vehicle somewhat, but doing the royal occupant no hurt. He alighted to investigate and a second bomb ended his career. The church is built on the spot. Just where that took place the pavement of the street is shown and over it a canopy with pillars of fine stone and about it a balustrade of jasper, the whole costing over a million, while the church itself cost almost twenty millions. Within are four immense pillars twelve or fifteen feet square at the base and adorned with fine mosaic of the most costly kind and contain portraits of great persons, biblical characters, saints and others. There is an icon of the madonna and it is covered or clothed in vestments covered with lovely pearls and is worth tens of thousands. Another icon of St. George is a priceless treasure. An icon of St. Michael is peculiar in that it possesses a diamond of rarest worth and is beautiful and grand. There are pillars of Kief marble and other kinds from the Ural mountains and they are rare and costly. Of course the altars are superb and richly ornamented with gold, while the iconostases are a mass of gold and gilt as if it was as in the days of Solomon when silver was as the stones in the street. Priests were intoning mass when we were there and the great structure resounded with their voices, while devotees all about were kissing the sacred objects.

The Royal Stables.

We next were told that we would see the royal stables and supposed, of course, that we should have the pleasure of gazing on a lot of fine animals, as we did at Berlin four years ago, but we were mistaken. It was stables without animals and we had to be content. The only thing we saw that looked like a horse was one or rather the body of one stuffed and mounted. In life the animal had been used by a British lord in the Crimean war.

Up stairs was an array of equipments and accoutrements that baffled description and there is no use attempting it. First came saddles, bridles and harness and such grand and costly affairs I never saw before in that line. Then there were saddle covers, harness covers and covers for the horses ridden by the heralds sent out by the kings. The bridles were of the richest material, chains of gold and straps adorned with pearls and rubies, had been saddles of carved leather and rich linings, while the harness used was a mass of gold and glitter.

Possibly some of the seeming precious stones might have been glass, but royalty is not much on imitation. It seemed as if the attempt had been made to put as much material and expense as possible into the equipment and it is simply impossible to convey a correct idea of the magnificence of the outfits exposed to view.

MORGAN COUNTY SCHOOL DIRECTORS TO APPEAL TUITION LAW

Will Take Case to Supreme Court in Friendly Suit—Several Districts Have Not Enough Money for Both High School Tuition and Ordinary Expenses.

Another meeting of the Morgan County Association of School Directors was held at the court house Thursday with a very large attendance. John W. Clay, the president presided and F. J. Schofield, secretary of the association served in that capacity. The principal theme for discussion was the new tuition law which requires that high school training must be provided for pupils in the country school districts. At a former meeting an executive committee was appointed to consider the matter and this committee after going over the ground and consulting with attorneys as to the advisability of testing the law referred the matter back to the association. As the result of the conference Thursday it was decided that a test case shall be made in a friendly way and the question will be carried up to the supreme court. Judge F. E. Baldwin who was present by request explained the procedure necessary to carry the case to the supreme court and pointed out some seeming defects in the law.

The situation which presents itself to the directors is just this. They cannot levy a tax of more than one and a half per cent and in a number of instances where the levy has been made to the limit all the money is required for maintaining the district school. If funds are taken for high school tuition then the district schools expenses must be paid out of funds not otherwise appropriated. The decision yesterday to take the matter to the supreme court carried with it a practical agreement on the part of the directors to contribute six dollars from each district for a fund to defray expenses. The directors must pay this expense themselves or collect it from others because the law will not permit the use of school funds for a suit.

Judge Baldwin referred to the fact that a former tuition law had been declared unconstitutional because it provided that tuition should be paid for pupils whose parents were not able to pay. This provision was declared improper because all were not treated alike. There were other provisions in the former law which lawyers considered vulnerable to attack but which were not passed upon by the supreme court and some of the same provisions are in the present law. An inequality exists in the present law because while in some districts where property values are not high, the directors cannot raise by the 1 1/2 per cent tax more than enough to carry on a six months district school while in other districts where there is more wealth or property it will be possible to pay the desired high school tuition and still keep within the 1 1/2 per cent of taxes. It is true that F. G. Blair, state superintendent of instruction has held that directors must pay the tuition regardless of other considerations, yet is also true that the directors cannot ask for more than 1 1/2 per cent of taxes and that they must maintain at least a six months school.

While the question is pending the refusal of districts to pay tuition will be a great disappointment to a number of children who have entered the local high school and others in the county.

"GETS-IT," for Corns Surely Gets Them!

It's the Corn Cure on a New Plan—Gets Every Corn Quick and Sure. "If you're like me, and have tried nearly everything to get rid of corns and have still got them, just try the new, sure, quick, easy, painless way—"

"Talk About Your Corn-Getters. 'GETS-IT' Surely is the Real Thing!"

No bandages to stick and fuss over, no knives to make corns sore and turn true flesh raw and red, no plasters, no more knives and razors that may cause blood poison, no more digging at corns. Just the easiest thing in the world to use. Your corn days are over! "GETS-IT" is guaranteed. It is safe, never hurts healthy flesh. Your druggist sells "GETS-IT," 25 cents per bottle, or direct if you wish, from E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Jacksonville by Armstrong's drug store and J. A. Obermeyer.

RUN-DOWN WOMEN

Find Health in a Simple Tonic. How many women do you know who are perfectly well, strong and healthy as a woman should be? They may not be sick enough to lie in bed—but they are run-down, thin, nervous, tired and devitalized.

Women are so active nowadays, and so much is expected of them, that they constantly overdo and suffer from headache, backache, nervousness and kindred ills.

Such women need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic with oil which will create an appetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength.

Mrs. Walter Price, Biloxi, Miss., says: "I was in a run-down condition for months, I had taken several medicines but they seemed to do me no good. Finally Vinol was recommended, and from the first bottle I began to improve until I am strong and well as ever."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

P. S.—For pimples and blotches try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.—Adv.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Allcott, druggist.—Adv.

To this members of the congregation and the public generally are cordially invited and the presentation of the subject from such sources will be of much interest.

These 50,000 prescriptions represent the accumulation of 71 years' continuous business, and when you take into consideration that in the last 25 or 30 years all the physicians have been dispensing practically all their medicines from their offices, it shows a record of work that we are justly proud of, both for our predecessors as well as ourselves.

This is the day and age of specializing in most all the arts and sciences. We specialize in that of dispensing physicians' prescriptions, and call ourselves the Prescription Specialists. Our intimate knowledge of drugs enables us to personally direct the compounding of them; the supervision of the filling of your prescriptions assures you that no error will be committed in the selection of the proper and purest drugs. WILL HOLD ELECTION TO DECIDE ON ORGANIZATION

Petition Presented by Concord Residents Granted By Judge Brockhouse—Proposed Territory Includes Valuable Railroad Property.

Judge Brockhouse in the probate court has granted the petition of certain residents of Concord giving them authority to hold an election to submit the question of organizing a village. The territory which is to be included within the village is so laid out that there will be considerable taxable railroad property therein besides the other realty. There will be more than two miles of the main track of the C. B. & Q., about the same of so called second track and in addition more than a mile of siding.

One of the main purposes in organizing the proposed village is to make it possible to accomplish various public improvements, especially sidewalks of which there is a great need.

The petition filed by J. P. Lippincott on behalf of the residents interested in the matter and their names follow:

The undersigned resident legal voters within the territory hereinafter described, which territory does not exceed two square miles, and contains a population of more than three hundred, to-wit, three hundred and twelve inhabitants and is not included in the limits of any incorporated town, village or city, respectfully request your honor to cause the question to be submitted to the legal voters of the territory whether they will organize as a village under Article XI of Chapter 24, of an Act to provide for the incorporation of cities and villages, approved April 10, 1872 in force July 1, 1872 and amendments thereto as published in Volume 1 of Illinois Statutes, annotated by Jones & Addington.

The said territory is described as follows: Beginning 100 rods west and 200 rods north of the northwest corner of section 29 in township 15 north and range 11 west of the third principal meridian in Morgan county, state of Illinois, then running east 320 rods thence south 640 rods, thence west 320 rods and thence north 640 rods to the place beginning. The name of the proposed village is Concord.

SPRINGFIELD CITIZENS WANT CITY TO SELL THEM LIGHT

Have Called Mass Meeting to be Held Tonight—Will Protest Against Recent Action of City Council—See Purpose to Aid Utilities Company at Expense of People.

The citizens of Springfield are very much worked up over the refusal of the city council there to pass favorably upon the question of buying a new electric generator and taking such steps in a proposed consolidation of the electric light and water plants as would put the city in position to do commercial lighting. At the meeting in question Mayor Schnepf and Commissioners Davidson and Hamilton voted against the plan and Commissioners Spaulding and Coe for it. The charge is made that the refusal of the mayor and two commissioners to take favorable action was in reality a desire to block anything looking toward a step for commercial lighting.

Some citizens see in this action a deliberate plan to favor the Utilities company at the expense of the people and so a call has been issued for a mass meeting to be held tonight when the officials who voted against the consolidation plan will be asked to explain why they voted against it and why the proposition to buy a generator and to consolidate the plants is not a good one.

Mass Meeting of Citizens.
The call for the meeting which is signed by well known Springfield citizens is as follows:

A mass meeting has been called for Friday evening, Nov. 7, at 8 o'clock at the circuit court room at which the mayor and commissioners are invited to explain their action on the question of consolidating the electric light plant with the pumping station to enable the city to sell current for commercial and domestic use in competition with the Utilities company. You and your friends are earnestly requested to be present.

Dr. Elmer E. Hagler, Dr. E. C. White, Rudolph Hilmer, Fred Buck, Ralph N. Baker, F. W. Mahoney, John A. Barber, Frank Godley, Herman Staab, Russell Dockum, Joe Farris, Henry Conway.

Makes Accusations.
Commissioner Spaulding declared that the whole course of the majority of the commission was a scheme to kill the sale of commercial electricity by the city and play into the hands of the Utilities company.

Mayor Schnepf has held all along that the present market place with some improvement can be made to take care of the commercial business of the city and also give the city a chance to extend its sale of utilities to include steam heat thus entering the commercial field in a much wider way than could be done by combining the two plants at an extra expense for no good reason.

Utilities Company To over Rates.
There is interest too now over proposed rate reductions of Springfield Public Utility company. The proposition, as presented by F. A. Newton, rate expert of the company, who came to Springfield from Detroit, was to establish a sliding scale with a maximum of 11 cents and a minimum of 3 cents. Mayor Schnepf insisted that the rates should be 10 cents for the first 30 kilowatt hours; 7 for the second and 3 for the big users.

If the light plant was in combination with the water works plants, it would be possible to reduce the high rate to small users to 5 cents and also make a comparative reduction for the larger users according to Commissioner Spaulding.

Register Favors Consolidation.
The Springfield Register is fighting for a consolidation of plants and commercial lighting by the city and reviews the situation editorially as follows:

The utilities corporation is opposed to a combination of the city water and light plants.

The corporation will exert every effort to prevent the city from entering the commercial lighting field.

For the city to do that would compel the corporation to lower rates and keep them at an equitable standard. Competition would prove a potential rate-regulator.

Commissioner Spaulding with far-sighted interest in the future and greater Springfield of which we are hearing so much, realizes what municipal competition in the lighting field means for the vast number of consumers of electricity. He realizes what a protection competition will be against exorbitant rates. He knows that it will be one of the greatest and best safe-guards the consumers can have. It will be an achievement for Springfield and its people.

The corporation has set out to defeat the Spaulding plan. Members of the city commission are asked to line up with the corporation and against the plan to combine the municipal plants. All sorts of subterfuges are being suggested.

It is now hinted that only Commissioners Coe and Spaulding will stand with the consumers, and that the other members of the commission will stand with the corporation.

The Spaulding plan should be approved. These commissioners were elected to serve the consumers and not the corporation. The latter will enjoy a square deal with the city in the commercial lighting field, but corporations are frequently seeking more than a square deal. They often want monopoly and privilege.

The city commission should vote without delay to install another generator at the water plant. It is necessary as a reserve unit in the event of a shut-down of or accident to the one generator now operating.

A greater and better Springfield is very desirable, and a combination of the water and light plants will help to make the city greater and better by making it simpler for the consumers of electricity to enjoy reasonable rates.

Those who are opposing the Spaulding plan are not hitting Spaulding; they are hitting the consumers of electricity.

The State Register is not supporting the Spaulding plan because it is Spaulding's, but because it is in the people's interest and designed to benefit the consumers and help in building a greater Springfield.

A few nights ago the Congregational church bell was rung at a time of jollification over a football victory and the boys were so vigorous they broke the clapper fixtures and it came down with a crash. It was a fortunate little accident for when Mr. Irving went up into the tower to fix things he found the stay bolts holding the bell were partly gone and had the condition of things not been discovered the bell itself might soon have crashed through to the floor causing much damage.

FOREST NOTES.

Canada cuts about two million cords of pulp wood annually, about half of which is exported for manufacture in the United States.

It is claimed that some of the eucalypts of Australia are taller than the California redwoods, hitherto considered the highest trees in the world.

There are fifty-five oaks in the United States, about evenly divided between the east and the west. The eastern species and particularly white oaks are the most valuable.

The bureau of forestry of the Philippine Islands will send tropical timbers to the U. S. forest service so that their suitability for fine furniture veneers may be ascertained.

MORTUARY

Heinl.

A telegram received yesterday announced the sudden death of George A. Heinl at a hospital in Toledo, O. The deceased was the youngest brother of the late Joseph Heinl and will be remembered by a number of Jacksonville people who met him here a year since.

Mr. Heinl was about 65 years of age and was a native of Eger, Germany. He came, however, as a boy to this country and for the greater part of his life had been a resident of Toledo, where he conducted a very successful florist establishment. Mr. Heinl was a soldier in the war of the rebellion and had taken high degrees in Masonry. Since his retirement from business he had traveled extensively in this country, much of the time by automobile and was a man with a broad interest in affairs and exceedingly well informed. The deceased was unmarried and the only remaining member of his family is his brother, John G. Heinl of Terre Haute.

Miss Adelle and Ernest Heinl left last night for Toledo and F. J. and William Heinl will leave tonight to be present at the funeral which will be held Saturday afternoon.

Besides the parents there are five children, Lottie, Dewey, Harold, Wilbur and Loren Parkin.

The neighbors last night brought oysters with them and many other good things to eat and the evening was spent in social converse and listening to some entertaining music furnished by Misses Catherine and Agnes O'Meara, who gave a vocal duet, and Mrs. John Lewis, who sang a solo. Other young people present joined in the music. It was a late hour when all departed and many good wishes were extended the family for a prosperous time in their new home. At 8 o'clock Thursday evening Athens Lodge No. 1422, Loyal Order of Moose was formally instituted at Armory Hall by National Director L. M. Jones of Chicago. Participating in the ceremonies were 237 members of the new lodge together with about sixty visitors from nearby towns who came to aid in the launching of Jacksonville's newest fraternal organization. About 200 Moose formed a parade at 7:30 and marched through the streets in military order, bearing flashes of red fire and accompanied by Jeffries' band. The band played a few numbers in Central Park after the members of the lodge had finished their parade and gathered in the hall for the institution of the order. Besides the membership now enrolled there are fifty prospective members who have paid their preliminary dues and who will be admitted to full membership soon.

THE OFFICERS. National Director Jones made the following appointments for the first term, after which all officials will be chosen by the lodge itself: Past Dictator—Ira Howell. Dictator—George Imgrund. Prelate—P. J. Stein. Sergeant-at-arms—H. E. Wheeler.

Secretary—Harry Herring. Treasurer—Marce Osborn. Inner Guard—Fred Runkle. Outer Guard—C. R. Clark. Trustees—David Slater, Charles R. Knollenberg, Michael McGinnis. Deputy Supreme Dictator—James Tobin.

Examining physicians—Allen M. King and C. O. Webster. The national director, in addressing the lodge at the conclusion of the ceremonies of institution and the installation of officers, said he hoped to see the Jacksonville organization one of the strongest lodges in Illinois. He explained the plans for a permanent club room and emphasized the possibilities of a lodge of five hundred members or over as he thought the local order would soon have. Among other points mentioned was the new school for vocational training and scientific farming for children of Moose at Moosehart, near Aurora; the significance of the emblems of the order with which the hall was decorated; and the history of the lodge from its inception twenty-six years ago to its present standing of 1422 lodges and 509,000 members.

Plans were made for a grand ball and banquet to be held the last of the month to which there will be invited a large number of Moose from other cities. That the membership may be as large as possible by that time the charter will remain open, for thirty days and perhaps a short time longer. Prizes were awarded to the leaders in a membership contest which has been in progress since Clayton B. Fellows, national organizer has been at work in the city. The successful leaders were James Tobin, Ira Howell, George Hamilton, Harry Obermeyer and J. C. Wood. The prize awards were moose heads of solid ivory with eyes set with small diamonds.

Practical Overcoats

There was a time when overcoats were either style garments or storm garments. Not so now.

The present vogue for heavy materials, such as Chinchillas, Shetlands, etc., the shawl or convertible collars, and the three-quarter or ulsterette length, so combine comfort with style as to make the most fashionable service garments. We emphasize this in the large variety of Overcoats we are showing now.

This is the logical store to buy your Overcoat, where style and price are equally as pleasing. Prices range from $7.50 to $30.00.

HATS

Velour hats are the big thing in the cities and green the color. We show every variety of style and shade, brown, black, verde and green. $5.00 to $8.50—Others hats $1 to $5.
